Uncertainty Respecting Mr. A. T. Stewart's Position.

President Grant Anxious that He Should Remain in the Cabinet.

The Tariff and Free-Trade Question Likely to Influence the Vote on Repeal.

Other Objections to Mr. Stewart's Holding Office.

Probability that He will Resign this Morning.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 7.

MR. STEWART'S APPOINTMENT.

It is still impossible to say what the result will be, either in the Senate or House, in the case of Mr. Stewart. It seems that the President is very anxious to have him come into the Cabinet, and that his message was put, as some supposed, much in the nature of a compliment to Mr. Stewart than an earnest request; still, it is asserted, to-day, that he thinks the law ought to be repealed. Mr. Stewart's friends say he is not very anxious to hold office, though he believes he could bring order out of the confusion and chaos of the Treasury Department. Aside from the question of the propriety or impropriety of repealing the law, in the case, the vote in both houses will be in fix essed by a division upon the tariff and free trade, and the position the attorney of those respective doctrines believe Mr. Stewart to hold. A movement is on foot to have Mr. Stewart resign, and some of his friends say to-night that he will do it.

PERSONS RECALLED.

The day before Johnson went out he pardoned the two Dupays, of New York, convicted of frauds in whiskey. One of the first acts of President Grant was to telegraph the Marshal not to deliver the papers, and they have been started back.

GENERAL SHERIDAN.

General Sherman has received a dispatch from General Sheridan saying that he has ordered the railroad on its way East, and would be here by the middle of next week.

THE TARIFF.

The passage of Mr. Drake's resolution for the consideration of the instant relating to open seas, and the question of the tariff, is looking which the Democrats will undoubtedly endeavor to make a party issue. Address GRANT & CO., Chicago, Ill.

The Citizen.

MONDAY, MARCH 6, 1854.

THE GENERAL INDEPENDENT MILL.

The Citizen is a thoroughly democratic paper, and has always been found in the front rank of the battle for the principles of Democracy. We will not be unfaithful to the glorious cause at this late day. We are not to be driven from our position by the clamor of Whig opposition, nor by the defection of those who have been our political associates. We are not to be deterred from the faithful performance of our duty by the fear of losing the support of those who have heretofore given us their patronage. We are not to be bought off from the support of the principles we have always advocated, by the offer of any office in the gift of the people. We are not to be driven from the support of the Democratic party by the fear of losing the printing of the county, or any other petty consideration. We are not to be frightened from the support of the Democratic party by the fear of losing the support of any man or set of men. We are not to be driven from the support of the Democratic party by the fear of losing the support of any man or set of men. We are not to be driven from the support of the Democratic party by the fear of losing the support of any man or set of men.

Sermon on the Subject of Jewish Conversion.

Reply of Rev. H. Van Hoesen to Rev. E. Lord Gollier.

Rev. E. Van Hoesen, Correspondence Secretary of the Western Presbyterian Board, preached a sermon last evening in reply to Rev. E. Lord Gollier, on the Board, from the Church, corner of Fourteenth Street and Fourteenth Avenue, Newark. He took for his text Peter's first sermon. He said: "Ye are priests unto God, and kings and priests unto God." Ye are priests after the Order of Melchisedec, unto the Jews a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people." Rev. Mr. Van Hoesen said:

Jesus Christ, converted in the way known to you, was not an enemy of Christ simply who made the Jews a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people. Several substitutes bills of minor importance were introduced.

A recess was taken till 8 o'clock, P. M.

Speaker Thompson having been called to the chair, Mr. Ferry, Comanche, rose and said he had a bill to introduce, with amendments which made no part of the parent laws belonging to Mr. Ferry, Comanche, and he asked that he be allowed to introduce the same. Permission was granted, and the bill was read by its author, and referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Ferry, Comanche, also introduced a bill to provide for the appointment of Notaries Public in the Thirteenth Senatorial District.

A bill providing for the appointment of Notaries Public in Wilson county was introduced.

A bill to increase our salt improvement lands in the city of Madison, etc., was concurred in as amended by a vote of 97 to 0.

He further says that the bonds were covered by a mortgage. He charges cruelty.

Sundry Orders.

In regard to the bankrupt estate of Alfred Gridley, of Van Buren, of Hyde Park.

At a quarter past 9 o'clock yesterday morning the original from a detective furnace in the basement of the building occupied by Messrs. Jeff North & Co., 75 and 77 North Desplaines street, and reached in $1,200 damage to the house and contents. The building is owned by Mrs. Mary Ann Hoge, of No. 207 North Desplaines, and the furniture for $5,000, in the basement is owned by Mrs. Ann Reed, of No. 75. The fire was discovered by Officer Peterson, of the Fire Department, and by numerous police officers, who at once turned in the alarm.

Serious Accident.

At half-past 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon a serious accident occurred at the corner of Lake and Clark streets, by which a number of persons were injured, the most severely of whom is Thomas Fitzpatrick, a resident of the West Division. He was accidentally pushed from the platform of car No. 31, at the time above named, when one of our great city fires is so likely to be lost in the crowd. He was conveyed to the police station, where he was removed to his home.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Yesterday afternoon John Stalker, a boy about 7 years old, while hauling a loaded muskrat at the corner of Lake and Clark streets, accidentally shot himself, and will probably die from the effects of his injury. He was playing with a rifle, and in some manner got entangled his right arm, and it went off, the ball striking him in the left side. The boy was taken to his home in a very precarious condition, the attending physician expressing but little hope of his recovery.

Coroner's Inquest.

The dead body of a fully developed female child was found in the water near the foot of Lake street, and it has been the custom of the Coroner to hold an inquest in the case of the finding of such bodies. The Coroner held an inquest yesterday afternoon, and the jury, after hearing the evidence, rendered a verdict that the child came to its death by drowning, but that there was no evidence to show that the mother was guilty of murder.

Runaway.

Yesterday afternoon, a span of spirited horses, attached to a hack, while being driven by Henry Wenzel, became frightened at a train, took flight and ran away. They upset the vehicle and damaged it to the extent of $50, but fortunately did not injure the driver.

THE DUDAL STREET DISASTER.

Recovery of the Remains of the Firemen who Lost their Lives.

The Coroner's Inquest—Verdict of the Jury: Insufficient Support.

The Funeral To-day.

[From the Sunday Tribune.]

The disastrous consequences of the Canal street fire on Friday night have not yet ceased to engross the city, and the popular heart has been moved to sympathy for the four brave but unfortunate firemen who fell a prey to the flames. To explain the manner of their deaths properly, it is necessary that we give a resume of the circumstances. The fire broke out on the 6:30 p. m., and by the time the engines got on the ground it had made considerable progress. The building was full of rags, which formed forth in thick gusts through every window and crevice in the walls. It was calculated to make the building wear, by pouring it in at front and rear and at both sides. The iron shutters were fast, and could not be broken open without much labor.

Chief Paine, on arriving at the fire, took immediate charge, and, from time, little but the scars will remain. There is wide spread dissatisfaction among the people bear their losses with a fortitude equal to the courage which led them to hazard and ultimately to lose their lives in the patriotic sity. In the six weeks that we have passed in South Carolina we have not heard anything that leads us to doubt that intelligent Northern people, with a sense of fair play to the South and to themselves, can readily cultivate agreeable relations with the moral Republicans of the same class of citizens in South Carolina and Georgia.

I will give you an idea of the value of plants now, &c., &c., now for sale. A farm of twenty acres, with miles from Aiken, a house with four rooms, plazzas front and rear, with outhouses, etc., etc., well adapted to peach and apple orchard, and 1,000 peach trees; strawberries, raspberries, mulberry, walnut, hickory and other nut trees; a good dwellings, five rooms, kitchen, wine-house, smoke-house, blacksmith shop, barns, stables, etc., etc., and a fine well of rock and dairy, as well as for fruit; price, $7,500. Forty acres, about two miles from Aiken, all fenced, with a small cabin and a number of fruit trees; price, $350. A farm, vineyard, and orchard, containing 108 acres, two miles from Aiken, 12 acres of vineyard, 1,200 peach trees, 300 apple, other trees; a cottage of eight rooms, twin style, 4 houses for servants, with necessary outbuildings; price $6,000. A farm of 100 acres, with house, etc., etc., with wagon-house oaks; price $4,00. A farm of 1,000 acres, one mile from Aiken, with 20,000 lasbella, Pauline, Catawba and Scuppernong grapevines, all bearing years' trees, 1,000 apple, and 300 pear trees; interest in a water-power, with mill and timber, hickory, oak and all pine for fuel; price $14,000.

Sad Death of Dr. Sargeourbe.

A very sad impression has been produced in literary circles in Aiken, Carolina, on the morning on Saturday last, the 16th current, after an illness of nine days, of Dr. Gustave A. Sargeourbe, a native of Paris, and an able physician and archæologist. He had been a resident of Aiken for some years, and was appointed by the Royal Commission of Archives—I am not quite sure of the exact title—to obtain and collect materials for a history of Henry VII. and Henry VIII., in connection with the political relations between England and Spain at that period. At Simancas the Spanish Government has a vast library of the most valuable manuscripts, and amongst them the correspondence of Mesers. Chandler, Ordway & Co. with all the fraudulent schemes set on foot in Washington under every branch of the public service and plunder the government of millions of money. Each article was written, it seems, by one of the most high-toned and brilliant men and writers in the country, George Alfred Townsend, of Ohio. His exposure of the character and doings of the "ring of plunderers" and the copying of it by the Independent Democrat stirred all the Radical leaders in Washington to fury. The draw from Mr. William E. Chandler, in the exposure of the rascalities of the "ring." Mr. N. G. Ordway. The defence was of no account, but for the "foul libel" it contained against the character of Mr. Townsend, then whom no man in Washington possesses a higher character, stores in better society, or has more devoted friends.

Among other things, Chandler charges him with being intimate. He is ready to put charge, we have received several letters from the most respectable and reliable men in Washington, pronouncing "every one of the charges utterly false." Western members of Congress who stumped our State for the Republican cause prior to our last State election, writing us a private letter, say: "The assault on Mr. Townsend is simply infamous. He is one of the most honorable men we have ever met. He is one of the head chiefs of the temperance organization here in Washington City." A New Hampshire man, known not to a few of our readers, writes as also as follows: "Nothing could be more false than Chandler's assault on Mr. Townsend, who is one of the most accomplished and brilliant men in Washington. His only fault is first or intensely natural resentment when any kind of evil shall threaten him. For this, of course, the thieves will endeavor to ruin him."

Having, ourselves, no personal acquaintance with Mr. Townsend, though we know also with others as also we know, we feel prepared to express the sadness of an assault against whose falsehood and malignity he is powerless to defend himself. This done, we have only to ask of every Republican in the State a careful perusal of Mr. Townsend's letter, detailing his experience with Chandler, and the process by which he was forced to regard him and his associates as "a gang of shysters," calming to make popular government a scandal. Congress an instrument, and the people's victim." Let every honest man in New Hampshire read Mr. Townsend's letter.

Another Appeal for Money.

A large meeting of colossus was held yesterday afternoon at Plains Hall, Mr. Hoadley in the chair, and Messrs. Henry Hogan and Penny, Secretaries.

The Chairman made quite a long speech on the necessity of purchasing a site and commencing to build a new church edifice. He concluded by announcing that on St. Patrick's day a collection of $1 each would be taken up from Irish citizens all over the Union.

Major McWilliams, a new candidate for Fusion office and emolument, made a high-flown speech, which was received with cheers. Twenty-three letters were read from the organization, but not material in the character of replies. It started that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, including the Rev. Mr. Holcomb, who said Fusionism is the only hope of the Democratic party.

The committee was appointed.

Mrs. Caroline Corbin, Secretary Sims, was introduced as President of the brotherhood. He introduced a resolution that the Democratic party of the United States and Democratic Central Committee of Cook county could not cope with the Republican party unless they had the aid of the Fusion organization, which was warmly applauded. He was greatly destitute to make a proposition to the Democratic party that they should nominate no candidate for any office of honor or profit, and the people must fight it themselves. He was in favor of an appeal to the foreign-born voters and naturalize loaders," as he called them.

It was certified to have three pieces of deposit in the city, and he was glad to see the Irish St. Patrick's Day. General O'Neil promised that a thousand or ten thousand dollars would be contributed for the purpose for which it will be given.

Prof. Gustavus Geary:

DEAR SIR: We, the undersigned citizens of Chicago, having had the pleasure of hearing you lecture on several occasions, recognize in you the only interpreter in this country of the beauties of Bossi's Historical Paintings, and we take this method to show that woman's place is at home. So, also, that woman's sphere is not everywhere always. In some form, existed. And might and right are two things that should never have them set free. The Bible is our guide in matters of religion, and we believe that it is second. I believe woman was made help-meet to man, and not his equal. That all of this is necessary and vital. I believe that the wisdom of God is manifested in the creation of man first, and in his action in now to advance of all other nations. That the Anglo-Saxon race is the best race that the world has ever known. That Independence, being the first nation in the world. That we live in the position which God ordained she should hold. That the Bible is the only book that can be relied on for future, nor need I stop to give proof of the truth of these statements, as they are all self-evident to every thinking mind. We have had a clear talk about their wives and mothers being allowed the ballot; but we can and will not long submit to the insult of being classed with idiots, lunatics, criminals and women.

Yours truly and obliged to you for your services,

SUPERIOR COURT.

The matter of the estate of Aristian Sperbeck was called in court yesterday. This estate was an account from a decision by Judge Bradley, which was rendered last January. The estate was a resident of Niles, in this county. He died about two years ago, and was possessed of a large property. The original proceeding, among a widow and a number of children, was to have a division of the property.

To the adjudicated case, he left the north half of the northeast quarter of southeast quarter of section 31, 41, 13, 40 acres; also, three and one-half lots in Niles, a pretty property. Judge Bradley decided that the will was void, providing for the payment of his debts and those of his widow, and that the property should be divided in a just manner, he left all his property, real and personal, to his widow, and declared that it was not to be vanished. If the widow should die before the children, the property should be divided by the statement that the daughter had a ready purchaser for the property, and that the object of the court was based upon the fact that the defendants had no right to the property, and will do not remember the execution of the writ, and that the property of the plaintiff was taken by the defendants. The defendants claim that they had a right to the property, and that the writ was regular and was legally executed.

He was greatly destitute to make a proposition to the Democratic party that they should nominate no candidate for any office of honor or profit, and the people must fight it themselves. He was in favor of an appeal to the foreign-born voters and naturalize loaders," as he called them.

It was certified to have three pieces of deposit in the city, and he was glad to see the Irish St. Patrick's Day. General O'Neil promised that a thousand or ten thousand dollars would be contributed for the purpose for which it will be given.

Chicago, March 2, 1869.

Prof. Gustavus Geary:

DEAR SIR: We, the undersigned citizens of Chicago, having had the pleasure of hearing you lecture on several occasions, recognize in you the only interpreter in this country of the beauties of Bossi's Historical Paintings, and we take this method to show that woman's place is at home. So, also, that woman's sphere is not everywhere always. In some form, existed. And might and right are two things that should never have them set free. The Bible is our guide in matters of religion, and we believe that it is second. I believe woman was made help-meet to man, and not his equal. That all of this is necessary and vital. I believe that the wisdom of God is manifested in the creation of man first, and in his action in now to advance of all other nations. That the Anglo-Saxon race is the best race that the world has ever known. That Independence, being the first nation in the world. That we live in the position which God ordained she should hold. That the Bible is the only book that can be relied on for future, nor need I stop to give proof of the truth of these statements, as they are all self-evident to every thinking mind. We have had a clear talk about their wives and mothers being allowed the ballot; but we can and will not long submit to the insult of being classed with idiots, lunatics, criminals and women.

Yours truly and obliged to you for your services,

MRS. F. TALMAGE (colored).

THE REPLY.

CHICAGO, March 6, 1869.

GENTLEMEN: Your very kind and flattering communication, requesting me to give a course of readings on Bossi's Portrait Hall after I had had a rest, came to hand.

Thanking you for the valuable efforts as a vocalist and elocutionist have won with your appreciation of my humble efforts as a reader of the great work of Bossi's exquisite Irish melodies as a Scotch and Irish reader, I am, dear sirs, Irish dance. Irish lady concur with, and will be pleased to give a course of readings on the programme of the proposed concert to Irish music, by Harvard University, mentioned in your letter, before you a most diversified selection, and which I am quite confident will be highly appreciated by your appreciation. Last well to these future, and I remain, with the highest platform of esteem, your most faithful and grateful servant,

MRS. F. TALMAGE (colored).
